c.) you believe anyone involved in the accident has committed an offence, such as DUI

d.) unsure if you should or not, to be on the safe side

Go to Collision Reporting Centre, if:

a.) you didn't report to police

THINGS TO COLLECT

- Other drivers' licenses
- Other drivers' contact info
- Other drivers' insurance
- Witnesses' contact info
- Photos of damages
- Photos of injuries
- Photos of scene
- Intersection of incident
- Vehicles' travelling directions

REMINDERS

Inform your insurance company.

Speak with your broker for deductible and coverage details.

Reporting doesn't always mean you have to file a claim.

Insurance companies determine fault; police determine offences.
